

TOWN OF BELLINGHAM MASSACHUSETTS CEMETERY RULES AND REGULATIONS

These regulations have been amended by the Bellingham Cemetery Committee and Sextons on December 17, 2009 after closure of an advertised public hearing.

I. Gravesite Sales and Ownership

1. Gravesites and Columbarium Niches at Cemeteries under the control of Bellingham Cemetery Committee and Sextons will only be sold to:
 - a. Existing residents of the Town of Bellingham
 - b. Past residents of the Town of Bellingham
 - c. Family members of individuals whose remains are interred in Cemeteries under the control of the Bellingham Cemetery Committee and Sextons.
2. The DPW will print and issue deeds for gravesite and columbarium niche sales. The DPW is only authorized to issue deeds and sell gravesites and columbarium niche to town residents and former town residents. A vote of the Committee is required for any gravesites or columbarium niche sale to non-residents is approved.
3. All deeds are considered legal if signed by a majority of the Cemetery Committee, its authorized agent, or the DPW Director or his authorized agent.
4. A single individual can purchase one (1) to four (4) gravesites, if available, by completing an application and paying the fee (land and perpetual care). If an individual wishes to purchase more than four (4) gravesites, they should submit a written request to the Cemetery Committee. The Committee will act on requests for over four (4) gravesites at their regularly scheduled meetings.
5. A single individual can purchase one (1) columbarium niche, if available, by completing an application and paying the fee. If an individual wishes to purchase more than one (1) columbarium niche, they should submit a written request to the Cemetery Committee. The Committee will act on requests for more than one columbarium niche at their regularly scheduled meetings.
6. A single gravesite can be used to intern no more than the following:
 - a. One Casket and two urns, or
 - b. Six urns
7. A single columbarium niche can be used to intern as many two (2) urns. Niche owners are solely responsible for purchasing urns that will allow two urns to fit within the area inside the niche.

8. Gravesite and Columbarium Niche Deeds cannot be sold between private parties or transferred outside of the private owner's family without the endorsement of the Committee.

II. Work at and Access to Town Cemeteries
