

TO NOTE:

Most full-time library positions require a bachelor's degree in any relevant field or a master's degree in Library Science

ON AVERAGE (in Massachusetts):

- Academic Librarians working in a public school make between $32K - $70K per year
- Academic Librarians working in a college or university make between $75K - $100K per year
- Librarians working in a public library make between $30K - 70K per year

FUN FACT:

THERE ARE MORE PUBLIC LIBRARIES IN THE U.S. THAN THERE ARE MCDONALD'S!

IN MASSACHUSETTS ALONE THERE ARE ABOUT 1,600

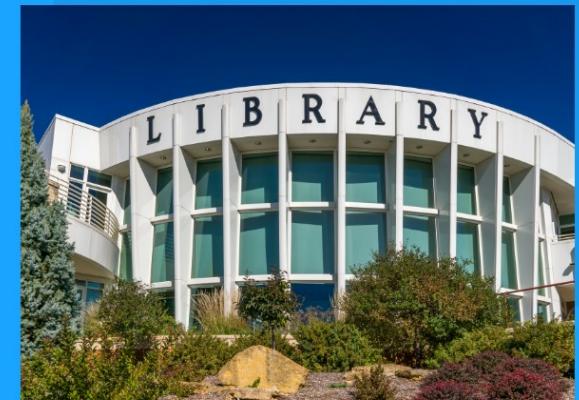

"In order to be really good as a librarian, everything counts toward your work, every play you go see, every concert you hear, every trip you take, everything you read, everything you know. I don't know of any other occupation like that. The more you know the better you're going to be."

Allen Smith
Professor of Library Science,
Simmons College School of Library & Information Science
